

Dario Da Silva

corazón de tango

"I was only 14 and I knew after a few weeks of dancing that tango was going to become an integral part of my life. Tango has been my passion ever since."

Dario started dancing at the age of fourteen at "El Club Sarmiento" in Rosario, Argentina, with great teachers like Daniel Aguinaga, Marta Corazza, Miriam Mondello, Rodolfo Ruiz Diaz, and Victoria Collosio.

After performing all over Argentina in shows such as "Y No es Poca Cosa", "El Tango y Sus Bailarines", "Tango y Vida", and "Una Noche de Tango", Dario made the move to the US.

Dario recently performed for a packed house at the prestigious Regatta Bar in Cambridge. He has also danced at The Wang Center, The Longy School of Music in Boston,

Dario has been invited to teach and perform in festivals all over New England. He recently participated in the New York Summer Tango Dario's teaching style is considered one of the best, mixing musicality and connection, along with technique. His classes are fun and exciting for both beginners and advanced dancers.
